

Fill in the gaps of this summary of the story "Secrets"

Kylie lives in Australia. She and her mother have moved to a new house with Philip, her mother's friend. Kylie misses her father. She's exploring the garden and finds an egg. Nobody else knows about the nice, white egg. She feels happy because now she has a secret.

Complete this summary of the first part of the story by adding three fairly short sentences.

She later discovers a coop of hens in wired-up fencing next door. A particularly unhealthy-looking hen begins piling up more eggs where she found the first, which Kylie follows intently, drawing enjoyment from watching the chickens go about their business. Kylie also starts to feel a strange pull towards the borehole cover Philip told her not to enter.

Put these sentences in the right order to produce a summary of the second part of the story
